

New Shop Teacher Is Schools' Biggest Man

Paul Muller, new metal and woodshop teacher at South High School, knows the school business from the ground up. Muller's face may be familiar to some of his students this fall, since he is a former bus driver, maintenance man and custodian for local schools. He was employed by Torrance schools during 1949-53, when he also was attending classes at El Camino and Long Beach State.

He became interested in teaching after working in the metal and woodshop at the school. He has worked in the school business from the ground up. Muller's face may be familiar to some of his students this fall, since he is a former bus driver, maintenance man and custodian for local schools. He was employed by Torrance schools during 1949-53, when he also was attending classes at El Camino and Long Beach State.

A LOT OF MAN FOR THE MONEY—New shop teacher at South High, Paul Muller is the largest employe of Torrance schools. The six-foot-five teacher is congratulated on his appointment by Supt. J. H. Hull. While working for his teaching credential, Muller served as Torrance bus driver, maintenance man and custodian.

3 Burglaries Hit Torrance Homes

Burglars broke into the home of three Torrance residents this week and made off with weapons and cash.

Gary Fowler, 17117 Patronella, reported a daytime burglary Tuesday. Fowler said someone came through his front door and left with $20 and two .38 revolvers.

That night E. W. Lindsay,

17110 Crenshaw Blvd., was robbed of a skill saw worth $85.

On Wednesday, Alfred Hansen, 18709 Fonthill, reported that two Japanese swords had been stolen from his home.

Robert Keller Reports to Missile Center

Robert C. Keller, seaman apprentice, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph A. Keller of 1411 Elm Ave., was welcomed aboard the U.S. Naval Missile Center, Point Magu, California by Captain William F. Sweeney, Commander Naval Missile Center recently.

Keller who reported aboard from the Naval Training Center, San Diego, has been assigned to the Naval Air Station's Administration Department.

He enlisted in the Navy in May 1959, and received his recruit training at the Naval Training Center, San Diego. Upon completion of "boot" training he was assigned to the Naval Missile Center, Pt. Magu, for duty.

All Girl Scout Day Program Set for Fair

Torrance Girl Scouts will be included in the invitation to the Girl Scout Day program at Los Angeles County Fair, Pomona, Sept. 19.

Membership cards or uniforms will serve as admission tickets for both girls and adults on the special day.

Los Angeles Council is joining 16 other Southern California councils in a newly redecorated booth depicting all phases of Girl Scouting. On Girl Scout Day, Sept. 19, the booth will be staffed by volunteers and girls from the Los Angeles Council.

On the giant stage of the amphitheater adjoining the youth building there will be a program staged by representatives of all of the 17 councils with two numbers featuring girls from Los Angeles.

Opening the brilliant show will be a colorful flag ceremony by members of the E. Sereno Drill team under the leadership of Mrs. Zula O'Brien, and following them will be a gaily danced Can-Can by members of Troop 1857 of San Fernando who have been taught by Mrs. Edna Hadly, leader.

Other acts in the hour long show will be from many parts of Los Angeles County and will include dance numbers, folk songs and skits.

The Girl Scout booth has been completely redesigned.

around a new outdoor scene with a waterfall and will feature all of the joys of the outdoors so important to Girl Scouts of all ages from 7 to 17.

This booth is made possible through the cooperation of Aliso Grande, Burbank, Centinela Valley, East San Gabriel Valley, El Monte-Puente, El Segundo, Glendale-La Crescenta, Glendora, Green Willows, Long Beach, Los Angeles, Santa Anita and Venice Councils.

Silver Collar Luncheon Set by Local Club

Members of the South Bay Veterinary Auxiliary are currently handling ticket sales for their annual Silver Collar Luncheon at the Cocconut Grove next month.

The luncheon is planned by veterinary auxiliaries in the Southern California area. Proceeds will be used to obtain guide dogs for the blind.

A November rummage sale is also on the South Bay Chapter's agenda. The sale will be held in San Pedro.

At the recent August meeting the group met at the Polynesian Restaurant for dinner and a fashion show.

Members and their wives dined at Ben Blue's restaurant in Santa Monica last Sunday.
